Blue Hawaii Tall Cruisin' On New Melones Lake

A weekend Houseboat Adventure with your tall friends!

Aloha! Come join the Sacramento Tall Club for a weekend of sun, fun and water sports on the New Melones Lake near Angels Camp, California. (See www.houseboats.com for more info on the lake and marina.) We will be reserving 2 beautiful Odyssey houseboats that are each fully loaded with a hot tub, a water slide, gas bbq, 2 baths, a full kitchen and an entertainment center. Each boat will sleep 15 folks, but for us tall ones, we have found that 10 to 12 people per boat works out better. Last year we had a ski boat plus a couple of other boats including a kayak, a couple of floating islands and lots of other fun water toys for playing in the cool, clear waters of the lake. There is also plenty of time for playing games or just reading under the shade of the canopy on top of the boat. Saturday night we will have a Hawaiian themed costume party and dance under the stars! So, bring along your foo-foo drink, grab a lei, a grass skirt and that wild Hawaiian shirt and join in the fun! Mahalo!

What's included: All the delicious meals, yummy snacks and cold soft drinks (or water) from Friday night through Monday morning, a bed of your choice (if possible) on one of the houseboats (see the list below for what is available) and all the fun you can handle!

What's not included: Alcoholic drinks (please bring your own or arrange for someone to pick something up for you) and bedding (let us know if you need to borrow anything if you are flying in.) The houseboats have some chairs to use on the deck, but it is nice to bring your own along as well. And, of course, any kind of floating or inflatable water toys are always welcome! (Sorry, no tiki torches allowed!)

Cost: A deposit of $50 will reserve you a spot (non-refundable after March 14, 2008)

Last year's great price if you pay in full by Dec 31, 2007:
